

Internship Opportunity – On-Camera Host (Toronto)

 Location: Toronto, Canada

 Type: Internship for School Credit (College/University Hours)

About datenight

At datenight, we bring the best dating experiences across North America right to the top of your feed. With over 34 million people reached monthly, we're a go-to digital destination for curated experiences, local events, and brand activations that inspire connection. Our content is fun, fast, and always in the know—thanks to our creators, writers, editors, and producers in every major Canadian city.

We operate Instagram and Facebook channels in 7 local markets, plus national channels on TikTok, YouTube, Pinterest, LinkedIn, and Twitter/X, alongside our editorial site itsdatenight.com. From spotlighting the trendiest restaurants to capturing the best street interviews, we're here to help Canadians make the most of their time together.

The Role: On-Camera Host

You'll be the face of datenight Toronto—regularly producing short-form video series, street interviews, and hosted segments that explore new openings, local events, and hidden gems.

What You'll Be Doing

- Host, film, and edit short-form video content (TikTok/Reels/Shorts)
- Conduct street interviews and pitch recurring video series
- Visit new spots (restaurants, pop-ups, events) and create on-location content
- Edit hosted and sponsored segments, delivering platform-native cuts and captions
- Write short scripts, hooks, and descriptions; coordinate releases and permissions
- Post and schedule across social channels using Hey Orca
- Track performance and iterate on formats that resonate in Toronto

You Are

- A current college/university student seeking internship credit

datenight

- Comfortable on camera and engaging with the public
- Hands-on with mobile or mirrorless shooting and editing (CapCut, Premiere, or similar)
- Knowledgeable about TikTok/Instagram trends and short-form storytelling
- Toronto-based, social, and excited to be out in the city discovering what's new

Perks

- Work closely with a fun, dynamic media team
- Access exclusive local events and openings (for Hosts) / Build a strong writing and publishing portfolio (for Editors)
- Learn industry tools and best practices in media, content, and production
- Flexible schedule aligned with school requirements
- Please note: This internship is unpaid and designed for students receiving school credit. It is intended to be a strong portfolio and career-building opportunity. A $50 weekly per diem is provided to cover transport to the office, events, and food/content costs.

How to Apply

Email your resume, on-camera samples/reel (links), and your school's internship requirements to info@itsdatenight.com

Subject line: Internship Application – On-Camera Host – [Your Name] – Toronto

Toronto Office:

694 Queen St W, Second Floor, Toronto, ON M6J 1E7

Supervisor Contact:

Selena Kovachis, Editor-in-Chief – selena@itsdatenight.com